

We provide training, consulting and advisory services with extensive knowledge domain and services straight from our heart

Training

IMT brings challenging, interactive, engaging, and entertaining methods to maximize the abilities of turning every stone of knowledge into actions of students and executives in senior management training programs, kaizen and 5S, customer services, and various others

Consulting

An elite team with in-depth experiences are ready to join hand with you to create sustainable advantages. We are not using patterns of experiences but applying breakthrough thinking principles to treat each client as a unique case and to prepare the solutions that base on after-next foundations

Advisory services

Beside having us solving problems case by case, IMT can play the role of an advisory team during a specific period of time with a range of expertise domains to utilize, from on-site continuous improvement activities to HR management system, sales channels development, branding, business planning and monitoring, etc. as a faithful friend

Why IMT?

Since foundation from 2005, we consistently keep our moral of work: non-profit direction and contributing to the development of our society with real values.

With that direction in mind, we dedicate all efforts to improve ourselves everyday in order to provide services that our team could be proud of and our clients could use with pleasure.

Above all, our team hope to be your faithful partner along with the way to success.
